

An Evening at Edgemont

The Junior League of North Little Rock's
70th Anniversary Celebration

We are thrilled to celebrate 70 years of service in North Little Rock and the surrounding communities! Continued support from our corporate and organizational partners has allowed the Junior League of North Little Rock (JLNLR) to impact thousands of families through countless hours of service by:

- providing baby supplies and prenatal education through our League founded project, Heaven's Loft;
- donating school supplies with our League Locker program;
- supplying gifts for families that are part of the Salvation Army's Angel Tree;
- hosting family nutritional programs through Kids in the Kitchen;
- supporting area students with Scholarships;
- bridging the achievement gap with our literacy project, Between the Lines, to put books into the hands of underprivileged children to help create a home library; and
- raising awareness and funds to end Human Trafficking.

As part of our ongoing commitment to women, children, and families in our area, the JLNLR hosts events and activities to generate the necessary resources to continue and expand our programs and services. We need your help to continue to serve the community effectively.

We are asking for your support in hosting An Evening at Edgemont, to be held on May 12, 2018 at the historic Park Hill home of Chris H. Olsen. This event will include an all access pass to the property as well as heavy hors d'oeuvres, delicious drinks, and wonderful conversation with Chris Olsen.

Tickets are $40 each or 2 for $70, and in order to allocate all of the proceeds of the evening to our charitable activities, we are asking you to partner with us.
